
RICE HOTEL

HOUSTON, TEXAS,

Sunday, Nov 18th 1923

My dear Poling:— Have just received word that you are booking me on Sunday afternoon Dec 16th, and I send you this line to tell you how delighted I am to be with you again. As I am too far away to help anyway personally I hope the Bureau will furnish you all the material you want. I made some new records recently perhaps we could give one or two

HOUSTON, TEXAS,

"Their first public try out."
At any rate, good luck to you — and I only hope we can work up the enthusiasm of our last concert. That was a real corker! My kindest regards to Mrs Poling and to our charming friends who supported us.
